

Since
I desired a style manual for our personal instead of holding up Mr. [REDACTED] A9a copy. There are some ideas in here that would normally go into a Correspondence Handbook and others that should.
It reads easy, looks good, but it gives the user the option to follow it or not.
I can include it in our book.

Please note
Mr. [REDACTED] idea.

It seems to indicate
he is having some
second thoughts
about abandoning the Correspondence Handbook.
Perhaps we will get one out this summer.

Let me have your ideas on how you see
this and our next action.
